

- 1 Read the text and choose the correct word.

Eid Al-Adha

Eid al-Adha is an Islamic celebration that takes place every year 1) in/on the 10th day of Dhu-al-Hijjah – the final month in the Islamic 2) diary/calendar. It is an important celebration in 3) Muslim/Islam countries all around the world.

Eid al-Adha lasts around three or four days. On the first day, Muslims bathe, wear new clothes and go to the 4) mosque/park for the Salat al-Eid – the Eid prayer. After Eid prayers, they 5) break/cut the meat of a sheep, goat, cow or camel into three equal parts; one for their family, one for friends and neighbours and a 6) final/last piece for the poor.

During Eid al-Adha, Muslims go to visit family and friends. They enjoy delicious meals together and 7) give/take Eidi to children. Common Eidi are money, clothes, toys and sweets.

The days of Eid al-Adha are a special time of year when Muslims think about what they can give to others and how they can 8) save/help them.

- 2 Read the instructions (A-E) below and put them into the correct order.

Eid al-Adha TREAT BOX

You need: white card, black pens/paint, a small box, glue/sticky tape, 4 wooden lollipop sticks, 2 stickers for eyes

Lots of people offer their guests sweets and snacks at Eid al-Adha. You can make your own Eid al-Adha treat box.

- A Then, draw two round cloud shapes and a sheep's face onto a piece of white card.
- B Next, stick the lollipop sticks to the box with glue or sticky tape.
- C Finally, stick the two shapes and the face onto the box with glue like in the photograph.
- D Now, cut the shapes out from the card with scissors and stick some eyes onto the face.
- E Firstly, colour or paint your wooden lollipop sticks black.

