Noises in the Night!

You hear a noise
in the dark night—
but there's no need to have a fright.

There's a shadow
on the wall.
Is it a ghost?
No—not at all!

Chorus: Noises and shadows
 everywhere.
 Don't be afraid—
 no ghost is there!

There is a cold
wind in the air.
The curtains move
but nothing's there!

Repeat chorus

Storytime Readers is a series of storybooks especially designed to provide easy and enjoyable reading practice. They have been carefully graded into three stages and have been written in a way that will help teachers to use them as plays, thus providing an early introduction to drama as a means of learning.

Storytime Readers tell tales of friendship, trust, family loyalty, kindness and love using colourful illustrations, dramatised recordings and engaging animations to stimulate the imagination of the pupils and encourage them to explore the wonderful world of the English language through literature, poetry and drama.
