Why is everyone wearing warm clothes?

It was a cold winter day and it was snowing heavily outside the cottage. Megan and Mark were wrapped in their blankets and wearing their hats.

Grandma Mara was telling them stories. The whole family was sitting next to the fireplace to keep warm. It was so cold that even the children's pets sat under the blankets.

"Grandma it's so cold we can't go play outside. Will you please read us a story?" asked Mark.

"Yes! Read us a story about the farmer and the snake," said Megan.

"Oh, OK, children. So, once upon a time, there was a farmer whose name was Fred."

What story do the children ask Grandma to read to them?
